BARDSTOWN THEATRICALS CASTING ORIGINAL PLAY

New community theater group in Nelson County is auditioning community members of all ages and types for “Fairytale at Wickland”, September 24, 2022, 9am-12pm at Main Branch of Nelson County Library.

Bardstown, Kentucky: Bardstown Theatricals today announced their first auditions for their upcoming production Fairytale at Wickland. They are seeking community members of all types and ages to participate in the show. Auditions are at the Nelson County Library from 9am-12pm on Saturday, September 24th. No experience or preparation is necessary. First come, first seen.

“The opportunity to perform can benefit a person of any age. Everybody needs a place to express themselves and access to positive guidance as they grow in their artistic skills” says Katherine Scott, Artistic Director at Bardstown Theatricals. “This original play weaves together several fairytale stories in a fun play that is absolutely family-friendly. We are making theater a family activity, to do and see together. The cast and crew we are seeking will be making theater together, as well as positive memories.”

Features and benefits of participating:

- Rehearsal hours tailored to children, students, and working adults.
- Safe and supervised rehearsals.
- Positive mentorship and professional direction.

Auditions will be physical and fun, please dress nicely but comfortably.

The play will be directed by Katherine Scott, a recent transplant from southern California. Bio available at www.katherinescottstudio.com

About Bardstown Theatricals: Bardstown and Nelson County’s newest theater group was established by Bardstown native Virginia “Ginny” Roby Holland and recent transplant Katherine Scott in March of this year. They saw a great need in the community for more Performing Arts education and performance opportunities for people of all ages. With a mission statement that focuses on building community, supporting children’s needs for expression, and putting on family-friendly shows, Bardstown Theatricals is now ready to cast their first production.
